Book 6-3

caillou's snowman

Storyteller: Anyone up for a story?

Girl: Come and sit by the fire. It's nice and cozy.

Storyteller: Let's start. Tonight's story is called "Caillou's Snowman".

Caillou: Got one.

Sarah: Me, too. Let's make a snowman.

Caillou: A snowman?

Sarah: Do you want to help me?

Storyteller: Caillou thought that was a great idea, even though he didn't know exactly how to make a snowman.

Caillou: Yes.

Sarah: Why don't you start making the head? I'll make his body.

Caillou: Okay. "Gonna make a snowman. Gonna make a snowman."

I can do that. I can't do it, I hate making the snowman.

Sarah: How's the head coming along, Caillou?

Caillou: I can't make it.

Sarah: You can't? Don't worry. I'll show you how. We're going to make the biggest snowman in the world.

Caillou: The biggest snowman in the world?

Sarah: In the universe. I think that snowball is big enough. Let's make new ones. First, you have to make a tiny snowball. See?

Storyteller: Caillou liked having Sarah to show him what to do.

Caillou: A snowball.

Sarah: You did it. Hey. Stop.

Storyteller: But Caillou wouldn't stop.
Sarah didn't think the game was funny any more.

Sarah: Fine. If you don't want to make a snowman, I'm leaving.

Caillou: No. Stay please. I want to make a snowman with you.

Sarah: Now look. It's easy.

Caillou: I'm finished.

Sarah: All right. Let's put on our snowman together.

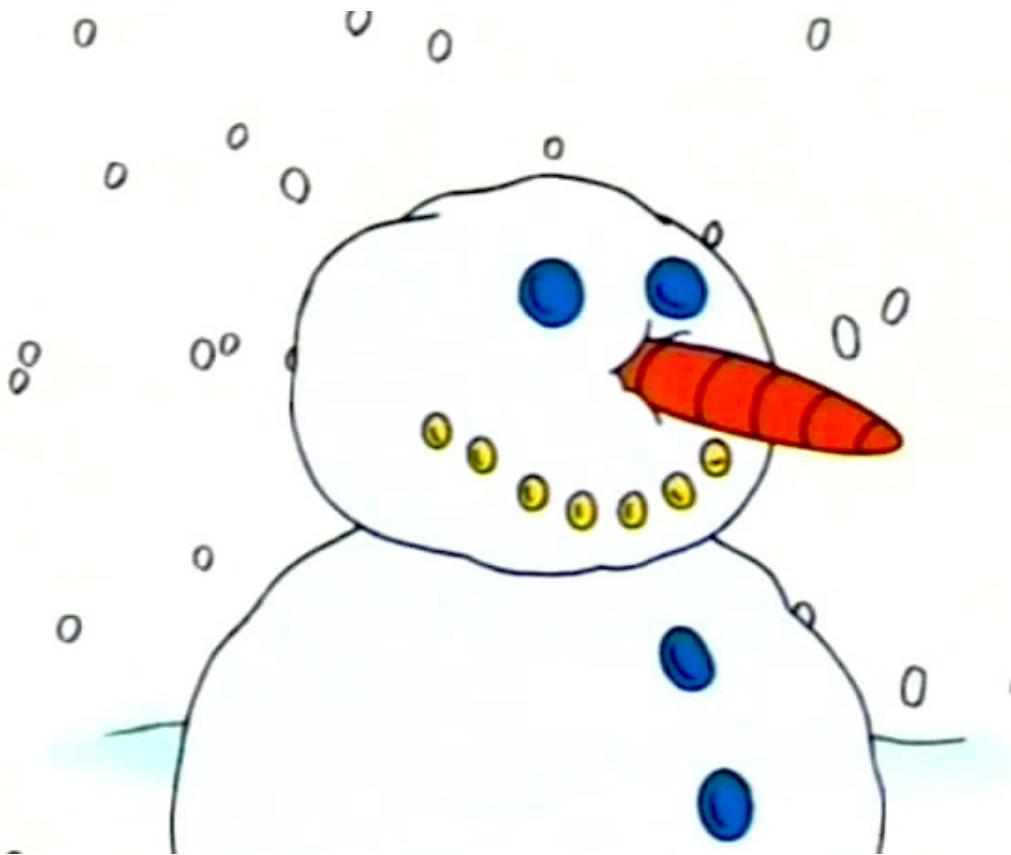

We have to put it on top of this one, are you ready?

I think it will hold. Now we need a head. That's your snowball.

Caillou: Okay.

Mommy: Hi, kids. I have a surprise for you. Look in the bag.

Caillou: A carrot?

Sarah: We can use it to make the snowman's nose. Wow.

Storyteller: The bag was full of great surprise. And very soon the snowman had a big smile on his face.

Mommy: I have something else. Let's see if it fits.

Caillou: Look, Sarah. He's beautiful.

Sarah: And he's the biggest snowman in the universe.

Mommy: Wonderful. Now, how about coming inside for a snack?

Caillou: Wait.

Mommy: What's this?

Sarah: It's a snowball.

Caillou: No, it's a snack for the snowman.
